Duration:

From the date of enrolment until the date and time of the booked sea transport.

Price :

The amount of the premium depends on the total amount (including tax) of the number of tickets purchased by the Policyholder. The amount of the premium is indicated to the Policyholder before he/she agrees to take the policy out , and then, once it has been taken out, it is stated in the Insurance Certificate.

The insurance premium is paid by the Policyholder in full at the same time as the maritime transport is booked with the Distributor.

Termination of the Policy:

In the event of subscription via the website of the shipping company or the organiser of the maritime transport, whose contact details are available on its website, in accordance with article L.112-2-1 of the French Insurance Code, you may cancel your subscription, without having to justify your decision or pay any penalties, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of receipt of your contractual documents by logging on to your customer area on the managing broker's website.

Sample waiver letter :

"I, the undersigned, Surname, First name and Address, hereby renounce my subscription to Maritime Passengers Shuttles ticketing. Date and place, Signature".

The Managing Broker, in the name and on behalf of the Insurer, will then reimburse the insurance premium paid at the time of enrolment.

However, if you ask to benefit from the Cover during the waiver period, in accordance with the conditions set out in the Policy Schedule, you will no longer be able to exercise your right of waiver, as this declaration constitutes your agreement to the performance of the Contract.

Complaints

If the Policyholder is not satisfied, he/she can send a complaint to the Complaints Department of the managing Broker, which can be contacted as follows:

- by email: reclamation@meetch.io
- by post: PHENOMEN - 141, avenue de Wagram - 75017 PARIS.

From the date on which the claim is sent, the Complaints Department concerned undertakes to acknowledge receipt of the claim within 10 working days and, in any event, to respond to the claim within a maximum of 2 months.

The above procedure does not apply if the court has been seized of the dispute, either by the Policyholder or by the Insurer.

If the disagreement persists after the reply given by the Insurer or the managing broker, the Policyholder may seek the opinion of the Insurance Mediator, who may be contacted as follows:

- Online at www.mediation-assurance.org
- By post to: La Médiation de l'Assurance TSA 50110 75441 PARIS CEDEX 09.

Referral to the Insurance Ombudsman is free of charge, but only after you have sent us a written complaint.

The provisions of this paragraph are without prejudice to other legal remedies.

Theft by assault: Theft by means of threats or violence by a third party;

Theft by forcible entry: Theft by forcing or destroying any locking device of an enclosed and covered immovable property, a dwelling or a vehicle. The use of false keys, improperly obtained keys or any instrument that can be fraudulently used to operate a locking device without forcing it or damaging it is treated in the same way as breaking and entering.

2. Subscription terms

2.1 Who can take out the Policy?

Any natural person of legal age who has purchased one or more SeaTransport Tickets from the Distributor.

2.2 How do you take out the Policy?

The natural person of legal age who wishes to benefit from the Cover for the Ticket(s) purchased must subscribe to the Contract by giving their consent to the insurance offer at the same time as purchasing the insured Transport Ticket online on the website of the shipping company or the organiser of the maritime transport, after having read the standardised information document, the information and prior advice sheet and this information notice and having accepted the terms thereof.

All the aforementioned documents as well as the invoice certifying payment of the purchase price, inclusive of all taxes, of the Tickets must be kept on a durable medium. These documents may be sent by post on request.

2.3 Proof the policy has been taken out

The data in electronic form kept by the Insurer or any agent of its choice shall be deemed to have been signed by the Policyholder, shall be enforceable against him and may be accepted as proof of his identity and of his consent to the insurance offer and to the terms of this Information Memorandum.

2.4 Confirmation of taking out the Policy

The Broker Manager will send the Policyholder, by e-mail, an Acceptance Certificate and this Information Memorandum as well as, as a reminder, the pre-contractual information documents, which the Policyholder also undertakes to keep on a durable medium.

2.5 Cancellation of the policy

In the event of online enrolment on the website of the shipping company or the organiser of the maritime transport, in accordance with article L.112-2-1 of the French Insurance Code, the Policyholder may cancel his/her subscription to the Contract within 14 days of accepting the contract and receiving the relevant contractual documents, simply by cancelling his/her insurance application in his/her customer area on the Managing Broker's website and may use the following model: "I, the undersigned, Surname, First Name and Address, hereby cancel my subscription to the "Passenger Shuttle Tickets" Insurance no. vr3n36. Date and Place, Signature".

Cancellation takes effect at the time of notification of the waiver.

The Managing Broker, in the name and on behalf of the Insurer, will then reimburse the insurance premium paid at the time of enrolment.

However, if the Insured requests to benefit from the Cover during the waiver period, under the conditions set out in the Policy Wording, he/she may no longer exercise his/her right of waiver, as this declaration constitutes his/her agreement to the performance of the Contract.

3. Purpose and limits of the Cover

Claims involving the insured Ticket are covered subject to the exclusions, limits of the Cover and compliance with the notification periods and formalities stipulated in this information notice.

The Cover shall apply only if the Policy is in force on the date of occurrence of the Claim.

3.1 Purpose of the Cover

If you are unable to travel to the place of embarkation for the reserved Sea Carriage covered by the insured Ticket during the period of validity of the Cover (specified in Article 5 of this Policy), the insured Ticket will be reimbursed under the conditions defined in Article 8 of this Policy for one of the following causes:

- Bodily injury, illness of one of the Insured, resulting in the inability to reach the place of embarkation to carry out the booked Maritime Transport;
- Bodily injury, illness or death of the legal or de facto spouse of one of the Insureds, of his/her partner in a PACS, of one of his/her ascendants or descendants up to the second degree, or of one of his/her brothers or sisters, resulting in the inability to go to the place of embarkation to carry out the reserved Maritime Transport;
- Complication of the Insured's pregnancy requiring her to remain in bed on the day of the booked sea transport, even if the state of pregnancy was known at the time of Enrolment in the Contract;
- Birth of a child or grandchild of the Insured, occurring in the 7 days prior to the Sea Carriage;
- Public transport strike on the day of the booked Sea Crossing, i.e. cessation of the public transport initially planned to get to the place of embarkation of the booked Sea Carriage as a result of strike action, provided that there is no other means of public transport available to get to the place of embarkation specified when the Sea Carriage was booked or insofar as any other means of public transport available doubles the initial journey time with a minimum of 30 minutes extra;
- Major property damage, occurring after the Contract was taken out, affecting the Insured's Home or the business premises or farm of which the Insured is the owner, tenant or occupier free of charge, insofar as this material damage absolutely requires the presence of the Insured on the premises on the day of the reserved sea transport, in order to carry out the necessary protective measures;
- Summoning of the Insured for jury service or a witness for the day of the Reserved Maritime Transport, provided that the Insured was not aware of this summons at the time the Contract was taken out;
- Summoning of the Insured for re-sit an exam for the day of the booked Sea Carriage on condition that the failure of the examination and the date of the make-up examination are not known to the Insured at the time of Enrolment in the Contract;
- Work requirement of the Insured, i.e. the obligation for the Insured to be at work or at a professional appointment with a supplier or a customer at the time of the Reserved Maritime Transport, on condition that this professional constraint was not known to the Insured at the time of Enrolment in the contract;
- Theft of identity papers (identity card or passport) essential for the Insured to go to the place of embarkation indicated at the time of purchase of the Sea Carriage or to collect his/her insured Ticket, occurring in the month preceding the Sea Carriage, prior to the purchase of the Carriage Ticket and provided that this theft is the subject of a complaint lodged with the competent police authorities;
- Theft of one or more insured Tickets committed by breaking and entering or by assault, provided that the theft is reported to the competent police authorities;
- Immobilization of the Insured's vehicle until the day after the day of the booked sea crossing, provided that it is the result of a road accident or mechanical breakdown (excluding fuel breakdown), occurring in the 24 hours prior to the day of the booked sea crossing and requiring the intervention of a breakdown mechanic;
- Any other random event preventing the Insured from reaching the place of embarkation or the sea embarkation specified when purchasing the Ticket from the organizer of the maritime Transport or the maritime transport company to carry out the said transport, provided that it is the result of an unintentional circumstance on the part of the Insured or a Policyholder of his/her family, unforeseeable, unknown on the day of Application for the Contract and resulting from the action of a cause external to the Insured.

3.2 Limits of the Cover

1 (one) single Claim per Insured Ticket during the period of validity of the Cover (specified in Article 5 of this Policy) up to a limit of €3,000 per basket (all tickets purchased by the Policyholder).

In the event of contamination with Covid-19 (SARS-CoV-2 or coronavirus 2019 or its variants), reimbursement will only be made on the basis of a request with supporting document(s) (100% reimbursement). Requests for reimbursement without supporting documents will not be accepted.

4. Exclusions

Claims caused by the following events are excluded:

- Error in entering the choice of transport ticket and/or error in entering the order, i.e.: error in the number of tickets, error in the date, error in the place, error in the choice of seat category, duplicate purchase of tickets by the Insured or by a third party on behalf of the Insured at the time of reservation;
- Cancellation of the Sea Carriage booked itself or the postponement or modification of the date, place, timetable or organisation of the Sea Carriage booked initially;
- Accidents or illnesses initially diagnosed, treated, relapsed or treated again hospitalisation prior to the date of Enrolment in the Contract ;
- Illnesses requiring psychological treatment with medication and/or psychotherapy (including the nervous breakdown) except where they have resulted in hospitalisation for more than 4 consecutive days;
- Suicide, attempted suicide ;
- The impossibility of access to the place of embarkation or to the maritime embarkation to carry out the reserved maritime Transport due to the non-presentation of a valid health or vaccination pass for each holder of an insured Ticket;
- Failure to comply with the health regulations introduced by the government and in force for access to all types of premises open to the public;
- Malfunctions of the booking platform;
- Loss of the insured Tickets;
- Loss of the Insured's identity papers ;
- Tickets controlled by any means by the organisers of the sea crossing or by the shipping company;
- Theft of insured tickets committed without forcible entry or assault ;
- Aesthetic treatments, cures ;
- In vitro fertilisation ;
- Periodic medical examinations for check-ups or observation ;
- Epidemics, pandemics as defined by the Ministry of Health or the WHO, pollution, strikes (other than public transport strikes covered by the cover), natural disasters, riots, popular movements ;
- Wilful or fraudulent misconduct committed by the Insured ; Negligence of the Insured ;
- Negligence of the Insured ;
- Events of which the Insured is aware at the time of taking out the Contract as likely to trigger the Cover ;
- Criminal proceedings against the Insured ;
- Non-presentation, for any reason whatsoever, of one of the documents required to collect the Ticket(s) covered, except in the case of Theft of identity papers as provided for in Article 3.1 ;
- Acts of war or civil war and similar events, riots, internal disturbances, acts of politically motivated violence, attacks or acts of terrorism, strikes, lockouts and industrial disputes, expropriation or action assimilated to expropriation, seizures, withdrawals, decrees or other interventions by a superior authority, as well as damage resulting from natural disasters or nuclear energy;

Any Insured who appears on any official, government or police database of persons known or presumed to be terrorists, any Insured who is a Policyholder of a terrorist organisation, a drug trafficker or involved as a supplier in the illegal trade of nuclear, chemical or biological weapons is always excluded from cover.

COVER Covid-19 or its variants :

Notwithstanding the exclusion "Epidemics, pandemics, as defined by the Ministry of Health or by the WHO", cover is provided if the Policyholder is unable to reach the place of embarkation for the reserved sea crossing indicated when purchasing the Sea Ticket due to contamination with Covid-19 (SARS-CoV-2 or coronavirus 2019 or its variants) and resulting either in medical treatment or isolation in the absence of symptoms. Cover is extended to "contact case" persons living in the same household (contact cases strictly limited to the following persons: the legal or de facto spouse of one of the Insureds, his or her partner under a PACS, one of his or her ascendants or descendants up to the second degree).

5. Period of validity of the Cover

The Cover takes effect immediately after the Policyholder has validated the said Cover at the time of purchase of the insured Sea Tickets and payment of the premium to the Distributor.

In the event of contamination with Covid-19 (SARS-CoV-2 or coronavirus 2019 or its variants):

- For contact cases and asymptomatic cases, cover is limited to the isolation period as defined by the Ministry of Health on the date of discovery of the positive test result (the date of sea transport shown on the insured ticket(s) must be included in the isolation period).
- For symptomatic positive cases, cover is limited to the period of treatment and/or home delivery and/or hospitalisation (the date of sea transport shown on the insured ticket(s) must be included in this period).

The Cover ceases:

- Automatically on the date and time of the reserved sea transport;
- If the waiver period is exercised under the conditions set out in article 2.5;
- In all other cases covered by the Insurance Code.

6. Insurance premium

The amount of the premium depends on the total amount (including tax) of the number of Transport Tickets and ancillary services purchased by the Policyholder. The amount of the premium is indicated to the Policyholder before he/she agrees to take out and then, once it has been taken out, it is stated in the Insurance Certificate.

The insurance premium is paid by the Policyholder in full to the Distributor at the same time as the reservation of the Maritime Transport Ticket.

7. Declaration of claim and supporting documents

7.1 How do I report a Claim?

The claim must be reported within 5 days of the Policyholder becoming aware that he/she is unable to reach the place of embarkation to carry out the reserved Maritime Transport, except in the case of fortuitous events or force majeure.

Claims must be reported to the managing broker in the following manner:

- By email to contact@meetch.io
- Via the online form, the access link for which is provided in the policyholder confirmation email
- By post, by sending your claim to Phenomen / Remboursement meetch - 141, avenue de Wagram 75017 Paris.

If the Policyholder does not respect this time limit for declaring the Claim and if the Insurer proves that this delay has caused him prejudice, the Policyholder will not benefit from the Cover (article L 113-2 of the Code des Assurances).

7.2 What supporting documents should be provided?

To obtain compensation for a Claim, the Policyholder must provide the following supporting documents:

- In all cases, except in the case of an Electronic Ticket: The original of the Insured Ticket(s) unless the Insured Ticket(s) could not be collected and unless the Insured Ticket(s) has/have been stolen;
- If the insured Tickets could not be collected or if the insured Tickets were stolen: Proof of payment (invoice, bank statement, etc.);
- In the event of a serious bodily Accident or Illness: Initial medical certificate specifying the date and nature of the accident or illness. The medical certificate must be drawn up by a medical authority that is a Third Party to the Insured ;
- In the event of contamination with Covid-19 (SARS-CoV-2 or coronavirus 2019 or its variants): if the Policyholder is affected: the result of his/her screening test for SARS-Cov-2 or its variants. If it is one of the people in the household who is affected: the positive test result of the person concerned and proof of parentage, given that the beneficiaries of the cover and known as "contact cases" are only the Policyholder's de jure or de facto spouses, the Policyholder's partner under a PACS, the Policyholder's ascendants up to the second degree, and the Policyholder's children. In the absence of proof of filiation, proof of address (rent receipt, tax notice, title deed, electricity receipt, mobile phone bill - limitative list) showing the Policyholder's name and/or address. Where applicable, a sworn statement to the effect that the de facto spouse lives under the same roof as the Policyholder;
- In the event of death: Copy of death certificate ;
- In the event of a complication of pregnancy: Medical certificate stating that the Insured must be confined to bed on the day of the booked sea transport. The medical certificate must be issued by a Medical Authority that is a Third Party to the Insured;
- In the event of birth: Copy of the birth certificate.

- In the event of a public transport strike: Proof of address and proof from the public transport company that the original journey time has been doubled by at least 30 minutes.
- In the event of major material damage: Copy of the claim form submitted to the insurer of the property affected.
- If summoned to jury service or to be a witness or to re-sit an exam: Copy of the official summons.
- In the event of work requirements: Copy of the mission order drawn up by the Insured's employer. The travel order must be drawn up on paper or by email on the company's letterhead, including the company's SIREN number;
- In the event of theft of identity papers or theft of the insured Ticket(s): Copy of the police report;
- If the Insured's vehicle is immobilised: Copy of the breakdown/towing invoice;
- For any other random event: Any information requested by the Managing Broker to enable it to establish the nature of the event and the circumstances in which it occurred.

All supporting documents relating to the Claim must be sent to the handling Broker via the channels indicated in Article 7.1.

In addition, the Policyholder must provide the Managing Broker with any document that the Insurer considers necessary to assess the validity of his claim for compensation.

If it considers it necessary, the Insurer may request the opinion of an expert or an investigator to assess the Claim.

If, in bad faith, the Insured uses inaccurate documents as supporting documents, uses fraudulent means or makes inaccurate or incomplete declarations, the Cover will not be granted to the Policyholder and the insurer will be entitled to retain the premiums paid.

The Insurer reserves the right to take legal action before the criminal courts.

8. Indemnity terms

Insofar as cover is acquired, the price of the insured Ticket, less any amounts reimbursed by the organizer of the sea transport or the sea transport company, will be reimbursed in full to the Policyholder by bank transfer, within 48 hours of the date on which the Handling Broker is in possession of all the supporting documents relating to the Claim, up to the limit of the cover specified in article 3.2.

If the Insured fails to send the necessary supporting document(s), a discount of 30% will be applied to the purchase price (including tax) of the insured Ticket.

In the event of contamination with Covid-19 (SARS-CoV-2 or coronavirus 2019 or its variants), reimbursement will only be made on the basis of a request with supporting document(s) (100% reimbursement). Requests for reimbursement without supporting document(s) will not be accepted.

Once compensation has been paid, the insured Transport Tickets automatically become the property of the Insurer (article L121-14 of the Insurance Code).

9. Complaints - Mediation

If the Policyholder is not satisfied, he/she may submit a claim to the Managing Broker's Claims Department, which can be contacted as follows:

- by email: reclamation@meetch.io
- by post: PHENOMEN - 141, avenue de Wagram - 75017 PARIS.

From the date on which the complaint is sent, the Complaints Department concerned undertakes to acknowledge receipt of the complaint within 10 working days and, in any event, to respond to the complaint within a maximum of 2 months.

The above procedure does not apply if the dispute has been referred to a court by either the Policyholder or the Insurer.

If the disagreement persists after the response given by the Insurer or the Managing Broker, the Policyholder may seek the opinion of the Insurance Mediator, who may be contacted as follows:

- Online at www.mediation-assurance.org
- By post to: La Médiation de l'Assurance TSA 50110 75441 PARIS CEDEX 09.

Referral to the Insurance Ombudsman is free of charge, but only after you have sent us a written complaint.

The provisions of this paragraph are without prejudice to other legal remedies.

10. Miscellaneous provisions

Territoriality: Cover is acquired by the Policyholder for Claims occurring anywhere in the world. Compensation will be paid at the Policyholder's place of residence.

Applicable law and language used: the Contract is governed by French law. The language applicable to the Contract is French. The language used throughout the duration of the subscription is French, which takes precedence over any other language into which the Information Memorandum may have been translated.

Subrogation: As authorised by Article L 121-12 of the Insurance Code, the Insurer may take action against the party responsible for the Loss to obtain reimbursement of the compensation paid to the Policyholder.

Plurality of insurances : In accordance with the provisions of Article L121-4 of the Insurance Code, when several insurance policies are taken out without fraud, each of them produces its effects within the limits of the cover provided by each policy, and in compliance with the provisions of Article L121-1 of the Insurance Code.

Misrepresentation: Any misrepresentation made by the Policyholder in connection with a Claim exposes him/her, if his/her bad faith is proven, to the nullity of his/her Policyholder and therefore to the loss of his/her right to cover, although the insurance premium is retained by the Insurer.

Data Protection:

The Policyholder is expressly informed that his/her personal data is processed by the Insurer and the Broker for the purposes of executing the Cover taken out. The Insurer and the Broker act as joint data controllers within the meaning of the European Data Protection Regulation.

In this respect, the Insurer processes identification data, data relating to the management of the insurance contract, claims and insurance products taken out. This data is processed for the purposes of taking out, managing and executing the Cover, including the management of contracts, the execution of contractual Covers, the management of claims, pre-litigation, litigation and the defence of its rights, as well as the implementation of due diligence obligations as part of the fight against money laundering and the financing of terrorism, the freezing of assets, the fight against the financing of terrorism and financial sanctions, including the triggering of alerts and declarations of suspicion and the implementation of measures to combat insurance fraud. The legal bases for the processing carried out are the performance of the insurance contract, the Insurer's legitimate interest in preventing and processing fraud or compliance with legal obligations. As a general rule, personal data is kept for the time necessary to achieve the objectives pursued. In any event, the Policyholder's data is kept for the entire duration of the insurance contract, plus 5 years in the archives.

This information is intended exclusively for the Insurer and the Managing Broker (and their agents) for the purposes of executing the Cover. It may also be disclosed to any public or private body in order to comply with legal obligations. The Insurer may also have recourse to subcontractors in order to entrust them with all or part of the processing.

The Managing Broker has been entrusted with the management of the Insurance Contract and is therefore the Policyholder's main point of contact for any questions or requests.

Policyholder have the right to access, oppose, rectify, limit, port and delete information concerning them. The Policyholder also has the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority.

Policyholder are invited to exercise their rights by contacting the Broker Manager at the following email address: dpo@meetch.io. For more information about the processing of personal data by the Insurer, the Policyholder is invited to consult the Insurer's Privacy Policy, which is available on request from dpo@seyna.eu.

Any false or irregular declaration may be the subject of specific processing designed to prevent or identify fraud and may lead to registration on a list of persons presenting a risk of fraud.

Prescription: Any action arising from the Contract and policyholder is prescribed by 2 years from the event giving rise to it. Prescription may be interrupted in particular by the appointment of an expert following a Claim or by the sending - by the Insurer or the Policyholder to the other party - of a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt.

Article L114-1 of the Insurance Code: "All actions arising from an insurance contract are time-barred after two years from the event giving rise to them. However, this period does not run :

1° In the event of a concealment, omission, false or inaccurate statement about the risk, from the day the insurer became aware of it;
2° In the event of a claim, only from the day on which the persons concerned became aware of it, if they prove that they were unaware of it until then. Where the insured's action against the insurer is based on recourse by a third party, the limitation period only runs from the day on which the third party brought legal proceedings against the insured or was compensated by the insured. [...]"

Article L114-2 of the Insurance Code: "The limitation period is interrupted by one of the ordinary causes of interruption of the limitation period and by the appointment of experts following a claim. The interruption of the limitation period may also result from the sending of a registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt by the insurer to the insured in respect of the action for payment of the premium and by the insured to the insurer in respect of the settlement of the indemnity".

The ordinary causes of interruption of prescription, referred to in Articles 2240 to 2246 of the Civil Code, are a writ of summons, even in summary proceedings, a commandment or seizure, as well as recognition by one party of the right of the other party.

Article L114-3 of the Insurance Code: "Notwithstanding article 2254 of the Civil Code, the parties to an insurance contract may not, even by mutual agreement, alter the duration of the limitation period or add to the grounds for suspending or interrupting it".
